INFORMED CONSENT

AND AUTHORIZATION FOR SERVICES

Welcome to Cobb & Associates Inc.

This form provides information about the practice and privacy policies of Cobb & Associates Inc. This information is intended to help you make an informed decision about accepting services from us. If you have any questions or concerns about anything on this form, please do not sign the form until you have discussed your concerns with your therapist. Within each section, a summary of the essence of that section is highlighted in bold.

The Marriage Checkup

The marriage checkup consists of two appointments: 1) an initial interview exploring your relationship history, strengths and work areas, and 2) a feedback interview with recommendations tailored to your specific situation.

Use of Your Marriage Checkup Information

You are free to use the information from this marriage check-up as you wish. Research has shown that many couples are able to enhance the quality of their marriage following a marriage check-up without further need for outside intervention. In other cases, a referral for marital therapy may be recommended, in which case, your therapist will provide you with several referral options. There is no obligation to continue working with us.

If marital counselling is appropriate and you choose to seek such services from Cobb & Associates Inc., we usually work within a short-term model of therapy (i.e. 1-20+ sessions). The amount of sessions needed varies depending on the nature of each person's concerns, the complexity of the issues involved, the strength of our working relationship, and each person's commitment to work on the presenting issues. There is a direct relationship between effort applied between sessions and progress over time.

Fees

- The fee for the marriage checkup is the cost of two regular hourly visits with your therapist.
- Should you wish to utilize our services after completion of the marriage checkup, our practice is to bill fee-for-service at the following hourly rates: $170 per hour with our Registered Provisional Psychologists; $180 per hour with our Registered Psychologists; $200 per hour with Nathan Cobb, Ph.D. in MFT, RMFT, R.Psych.
- We prefer payment at each session rather than a regular billing process.
- Additional time beyond the 50-minute hour is billed in 10-minute increments.
- Billable services include: face-to-face and telephone consultations (not including the initial intake or dealing with brief scheduling matters), report writing, and review of written records from other professionals.
- Fees are payable by cash, cheque, credit card or debit

About Privacy

- All information you share with your therapist is private and confidential.
- Your information will not be released to anyone without your written permission (with some exceptions as explained below).
- When information is to be released with your consent you will be consulted regarding what information is to be released.
- Your information will be kept on file in a secure and private location.
- You may review the contents of your own counseling file upon request.
- The full privacy policy for Cobb Counselling Inc. is available upon request. It can also be viewed at www.nathancobb.com/privacy-policy.html

About Privacy When Multiple Persons Are Involved in the Therapy Relationship

- Many of our clients consist of multiple family members (i.e. spouses and partners in couple's therapy, family members in family therapy). In such cases, no information obtained from multiple family members may be released to an outside party without the prior written consent of each person from whom the information was obtained, unless 1) a different agreement has been established ahead of time and documentation of such an agreement is attached to this form or 2) information about the non-consenting party can be entirely removed from the information that is shared.
- The same policy applies if you wish to access or obtain copies of case notes from your own file (i.e. for couples or family therapy). Your therapist will require written consent from each person who provided information to the file, before he or she can release that information to you.
- As part of the assessment phase of therapy or as otherwise indicated, your therapist may request to meet with each of you on an individual basis for one or more sessions. Unless you have specifically made a different agreement ahead of time with your therapist and with other individuals in therapy with you and documentation of such an agreement is attached to this form, you must assume that your therapist is free to use his or her clinical judgment to decide whether, when and how to incorporate information you've shared privately with your therapist into your conjoint sessions and that disclosure of such private information by the therapist to others in therapy with you is not considered a breach of confidentiality.
- The rationale for this policy is that it can be detrimental to the progress of your therapy or your relationship for your therapist to be in a position of having knowledge of sensitive information that the other spouse is not privy to, as it may put your therapist into a conflict-of-interest position.

Exceptions to Privacy

A client's confidential information may be released without their consent under the following conditions:

- When the purpose is to protect individuals (including a client) who are at foreseeable and imminent risk of bodily harm or death as a result of a client's actions.
- Under law that requires reporting of child and elder abuse/neglect to authorities.
- Under subpoena from a court of law.
- In the unlikely event of a client's account becoming 120 days past due or in the event of a dispute over a financial transaction, limited information may be shared with financial or legal agencies connected with the business of Cobb Counselling Inc. (i.e. credit card companies, collection agencies, etc.) as necessary to resolve such disputes or to collect on unpaid accounts. In such cases, any personal information disclosed is limited to only that which is necessary to resolve the dispute or to settle the account (i.e. dates, transaction amounts, etc.) and does not include any clinical information.
- Exceptions that apply to personal information disclosed by minors: Generally, but not always, the legal guardian(s) of a minor must give consent for the minor to receive treatment and has a legal right to information disclosed in therapy by the minor in order to provide nurture and protection that is in the best interest of the minor. However, if everyone agrees at the outset of therapy to terms of confidentiality between the minor and his or her guardian(s) then the therapist is bound to abide by these terms. The therapist may subsequently only disclose confidential information obtained from the minor without written consent under the terms agreed upon, or as required by law, or under the exceptions outlined above. Your therapist will discuss these exceptions further with you in session, as applicable.
- If you disclose in confidence that you have done something illegal, your therapist is not obligated to report this to the authorities, unless the circumstances involve child abuse, abuse against a dependent adult, or a direct threat to another person (as outlined above).

Initial Here →

I have carefully read the preceding sections on privacy and exceptions to privacy (or have had them explained to me) and I am satisfied that I fully understand the above stated policies on confidentiality and the limits of my confidentiality rights and I agree to proceed with counseling under these terms. _____

Email Privacy

- Email is a quick and convenient method of communication. Many of our clients use it to correspond with us. Please be aware, however, that while every effort is made to safeguard your privacy, we cannot guarantee the confidentiality of email messages. If this is a concern for you, please do not use email to correspond with us.
- We will only use email to communicate with you: a) in response to an email you send us, or b) as you authorize it or otherwise request it. Please be aware that if you provide your email to us, this is automatically authorizing us to use it as a means of correspondence.
- Your therapist will not transmit personally sensitive information by email (i.e. discussing clinical and personal details), unless you expressly give him or her consent to do so.
- Please note that it is typical for our client account management system to send you copies of your invoices or receipts by email.

Collaboration with Professional Referral Source

- If you have been referred to Cobb & Associates Inc. by another professional (i.e. mental health provider, lawyer, physician, psychiatrist, clergy, etc.), it is customary for your therapist to contact your referral source to acknowledge the referral at the beginning of treatment.
- Your signature at the bottom of this form is your consent for this communication to take place. If you do not give your consent for this communication, or if this is not applicable to you, please leave this section blank.

Consent to Release Information to Health Insurance Provider

- If you will be submitting any health claims for reimbursement to your health insurance provider for the counselling services you receive at Cobb & Associates Inc. your health insurance provider may contact us to obtain information necessary to verify your claim.
- The type of information they would typically request includes: 1) date of service, 2) the nature of services provided, and 3) the names of individuals who received the service.
- Our experience has shown that verification checks are not common, and that most health insurance providers will typically not request detailed diagnosis and treatment plan information, unless the insurance company was the referral source who previously contacted us on your behalf, and contracted with us to provide services to you.
- Your signature at the bottom of this form is your consent for this communication to take place, if necessary. If you do not give such consent, please cross off this paragraph.
- If you are not submitting any claims, check the box marked “Not applicable” below.

24-Hour Cancellation Policy

- If you cannot attend an appointment, please notify our office 24 hours in advance.
- Please cancel by phone since email delivery is not always instantaneous or reliable.
- The purpose of a 24-hour cancellation policy is to allow enough time for us to fill the vacant appointment slot, thereby meeting the needs of other clients who are waiting for an appointment. The therapist is essentially committing a one-hour (or longer) block of his or her time to a client’s care, and only a limited number of such appointment slots can be booked in a day. A same day cancellation provides insufficient notice with which to re-book an appointment, and thus represents both lost opportunity for someone else to benefit from that time slot as well as lost revenue. There is, therefore, a fee charged for a late cancellation or no show of 50% of the hourly rate to a minimum of $85, per one-hour appointment, pro-rated in the event of a longer appointment slot.

- We appreciate that unforeseen events sometimes happen, but please be as respectful of our time as you can. Exceptions to this policy are rare.
- Please be aware that third-party reimbursement providers (i.e. health insurers) typically do not reimburse for late cancellation charges or no show charges.
- Our office staff will provide a courtesy reminder call about an upcoming appointment two business days in advance. Please note that these reminder calls are a courtesy only. Our clients are fully responsible for any appointments they have booked with Cobb & Associates Inc. even if they receive no reminder call.
- If you arrive late, the session will have to be shorter but will still be billed as though you had utilized the entire hour.
- If you are more than 20 minutes late, we will assume you are not attending.

Social Media

- It is the policy of Cobb & Associates Inc. not to accept social networking invitations from past or current clients utilizing social media sites such as Facebook, LinkedIn or other similar sites.
- This policy is in keeping with ethical guidelines that prohibit the formation of dual relationships between therapist and client. A dual relationship occurs when a therapist and client form another type of relationship outside of the therapist-client relationship (i.e. mutual friendship, business associate, teacher, student, family member, etc.), or enter into a therapist-client relationship after another type of relationship has already been established. Such dual relationships have the potential for creating conflicts of interest, possible exploitation, and problems associated with unhealthy boundaries.

Direct Billing to Insurance Companies Requires Valid Credit Card Kept on File

- We offer direct billing to many of the major insurance carriers in Alberta.
- Please be aware that direct billing is a convenience to our clients and does not imply any obligation on our part to secure payment from your insurance company. Except in cases where a third-party (such as an insurance company) refers a client to us directly and payment arrangements are made with us directly by that third party, the client is responsible for payment for our services, even in cases where the client's insurer covers the services and accepts direct billing from us.
- There are circumstances where we are unable to process a direct billing claim. These can include but are not limited to the following: 1) the amount billed for a session exceeds the client's coverage, 2) the client's policy limits have been reached, 3) we have received incorrect insurance policy information from the client, or 4) there is some technical problem that prevents us from submitting a claim or that prevents the insurance company from processing a claim through our claim portal. On occasion, the insurance carrier may simply deny a claim for reasons that they cannot share with us.
- Please know that due to privacy laws, if your insurance carrier indicates to us that there is a problem with your claim or that your coverage has been denied, for any reason, we are unable to work with your carrier directly to resolve the problem.
- For direct billing purposes, we will process a direct billing claim within 24 business hours of the service being rendered. If the claim is denied, we then require payment from the client. The client may still be reimbursed by their insurance company, but it will be up to the client to resolve whatever problems caused the direct billing claim to be denied.

- If, for any reason, a direct billing claim is not made by our office within the window of time allowed for direct billings to be processed by your insurer, you are responsible for payment in full of services connected to that direct billing claim.
- For the reasons outlined above, if you wish us to direct bill your insurance company, we are pleased to do so, but we require a valid credit card number to be kept in your file. If the direct billing claim is denied, the fee-for-service will be charged to your credit card.
